SPRING and AUTUMN.

Waly, Waly up the Bank,
Why do I weep for thee?
These three last songs will be sung by Mai'lls Nisson—who is new on her way to this county—at her concerts in America, and they will airain a popularity, on their merits alone, equal to the songs of Jeany Lind or Parcya Rosa. A sprind and correct likeness of Mad'lls Nilsson adores the title-page of each song. Coples without colors if cents each. Just rec'd at ADAMS' Book Store.
